

IIFT-2006 (English Solutions)

- | | |
|--|--|
| 57.(C) Only the words purposely and purposefully are correctly used. Both of these words mean 'with a purpose'. This meaning fits in the context of both the sentences. | 65.(A) Prophecy is a noun and not a verb. Hence sentence A contains inappropriate usage of the word. |
| 58.(B,C,D) Options B,C& D are correct .Corps & corpse, 'grisly & grizzly & infamous & notorious have been used correctly. Illusion & allusion have been used incorrectly, fit in accurately when interchanged between options i & ii . | 66.(A) moribund means dying and is the only word that fits in the context of both the sentences. |
| 59.(A,D) Options A & D are correct. Rebel & repel have been used incorrectly 'repel' fits in in option i and 'rebel' in option ii. In option C 'overlook' and 'oversee' make sense on being interchanged between options i & ii. | 67.(C) soporific is a word that can be used both a noun and as an adverb. In the first sentence it is used as an adverb to qualify the nature of the tone. In the second sentence it is used as a noun to mean a sleep inducing medication. |
| 60.(B,C) Sentences B and C are incorrect. In sentence B it should have been "one third of that of France" and "by late 1970s" In sentence C it should have been "Huns who were Mongolians" | 68.(D) none of the options fit in both the sentences. |
| 61.(A,B,D) Sentence A – "more than they do"; sentence B – "he must ... his personal life"; sentence D – modifier error. | 69.(A) placative means appeasing or soothing. It fits in the context of both the sentences. |
| 62.(B,C,D) Murrey means dark purple. Thus a similar relationship cannot be established between murrey and black, like that between magenta and red. Inter (to bury) and Exhume (to dig out) are opposite actions of each other. Piebald (varied) and Homogeneous (uniform) also share a relationship of being opposites. Effete (barren) and Fructuous (productive) share the same relationship as that of Chapfallen (dejected) and Effervescent (excited) i.e. that of being opposites. Selenology is the study of moon, whereas Epistemology is the study of (human) knowledge. Thus B, C and D are valid analogies. | 70.(A,B) hypallage and rantipole have been spelt correctly |
| 63.(B,C) A Polyglot is able in several Languages. A Polyphagous craves for Food. Hence there is no valid analogy. Escutcheon and Scutcheon are synonyms (both meaning a shield) and so are Fabulist and Liar (both meaning a person concealing the truth). Scurvy is a disease cause by the lack of Vitamin C whereas Kwashiorkor is a disease caused by lack of Protein (caused primarily due to a high carbohydrate diet). Apothecary is an institution manufacturing and/ or selling Drugs whereas a Cruciverbalist is a person who is expert at solving crosswords. Hence only B and C are valid analogies. | 71.(D) Only panegyric has been spelt correctly. |
| 64.(D) Growth cannot be described as luxurious. Hence sentence D contains inappropriate usage of the word 'luxuriously'. | 72.(B,D) The correct combinations are
 Agent Burning-Glass
 Garpon Caravan
 Gyanyima Market
 Norbu Guide Hence the correct choices are B and D |
| | 73.(A,D) From the passage only statements A and D are correct. |
| | 74.(A,B,D) It is mentioned in the passage that the viceroy was amazed at the Europeans' simplicity. Hence A, B and D are incorrect. |
| | 75.(A,B,C,D) All four statements are correct and are mentioned in the passage. |
| | 76.(A,B,D) There is no mention of Statement C in the passage. The rest however are correct. |
| | 77.(A,D) Statements A and D do not appear in the passage. Hence the answer. |
| | 78.(A,B) Statements A and B are correct. The rest do not appear in the text. |
| | 79.(A,B,C) The combinations are
 Astronomy Tabriz
 Abacus Clerk
 Literacy Almanac
 History Propaganda Thus the correct answers are A, B, C. |

